

YOUNGERSHOOT MON 9/5

KIDS' ZONE HANDS-ON ACTIVITIES

Join us from 11am to 6pm in Center Square

See performances, presentations, and hands-on activities that appeal to the youngest music and arts fans! The Kids' Zone is curated by The Children's Museum, Seattle and is located in their outdoor garden in Center Square.

The Children's Museum, Seattle

See a portion of the new Near and Far exhibit, which uses Lego and Duplo bricks as an interactive teaching tool to bring play and imagination alive. Kids can also explore their outdoor garden exhibit.

Blue Man Group (Broadway Across America)

Children will be able to experience their own version of the comedy and music show as they experiment with drums, water and percussion!

Mama K's Aromatic Play Clay

Using the all-natural aromatic clay, children can create their own art pieces and scenery projects!

ParentMap

Kids can draw and color silly cartoons, funny monsters, fancy flowers and stunning self-portraits. Families can also play the "Guess How Many" and "Bead Drop" games and be entered to win super special prizes!

EMP Museum

Experience drop-in guitar lessons and explore some of the most significant moments in rock music, science fiction, and popular culture.

Pacific Science Center

Explore interactive, hands-on exhibits from the "Science on Wheels" education outreach program. Kids will also be able to participate in fun science experiments!
